Volume 23 Issue 4

Chloe, John, William, and Noah watch the piles being driven for the new swimming dock.

This Weekend at KYC

The weather was beautiful at Keuka this weekend. Work began in earnest on the new swimming dock, as the barge-mounted pile driver hammered home several large steel pipes obtained by Pat Shane. The new dock should be completed in the next couple weeks. Meanwhile, the Wiffle Ball World Series continued on the lawn, and several people managed to get their boats ready and in the water despite the steady bombardment of stray balls.

Shrimp Boil Coming July 7

The annual Shrimp Boil will be Saturday, July 7th. All the shrimp you can eat and a steak too! Plus the Rock & Roll band "Van Lanahan". You don't want to miss this one. Guests welcome, so bring your friends. (See Steve Andersen for information.)

Father's Day

Kid's Korner

By John Cleary (Age 6)

John has some ideas about how kids can stay safe at the lake this summer:

1. Kids should not go deeper than their heads in the water, unless they are wearing a life jacket
2. Make sure you are a good swimmer before you go into the water without a life jacket.
3. If you are young, you should have a parent watching you.
4. Wear water shoes, because the zebra mussels will cut your feet.
5. Only go out on a boat if you are with an adult.
6. Always wear a life jacket if you are on a boat.
7. If you are playing wiffle ball, make sure you don't hit the clubhouse.

Race Results

Two sunfish and one pile-driving barge showed up to race on Sunday afternoon. When interviewed about his second place finish, John Wight remarked "I saw the barge coming on strong at the weather mark, but I caught a shift and ducked inside of him on the turn." He celebrated by taking apart one of his boats, while Bob Wilder celebrated first place with a Mountain Dew.

(E Scow results submitted by Chris Hawk)

Two scows traveled to Chautauqua this weekend to join ten CLYC scows to sail the first leg of the NY State Championships. Four races were held over two days of challenging wind conditions ranging from light and variable to a pretty good blow.

Bob Cole in KU-9 showed up with a ringer on jib, a name from the past - Steve Bender. Together with Ann Penwarden and Bob's wife Marie, they proved themselves repeatedly and finished fourth overall with 16 points missing the top three only one point behind Dave Barger.

George Welch Jr in KU-11 won the weekend with finishes of 1, 2, 1, 1, beating second place Rick Turner by 6 points. George, with his crew BJ Lanahan and Chris Hawk, was able to lead the entire first race in light and variable conditions while Rick had difficulties and finished fifth. The other three races had as many as six different leaders and even more lead changes. The one race held Sunday in growing wind was tightly packed and had four different leaders at four different marks. The outcome of the regatta was not clear until the final leg.

George carries the point lead into the second half of the championships at KYC in July. Congrats George!
